

Problems for Designers to address	Instructions Participants will see
1. Design alternative methods to track a package on Canada Post https://www.canadapost-postescanada.ca/cpc/en/home.page	You are on the Canada Post website to track your package. You are ready to enter the tracking number. Click where you would to start typing in the tracking information
2. Design alternative methods for initiating a chat with the librarian on https://ontariotechu.ca/sites/library/	You are trying to find a specific book at the library and need help. Click to open a chat with the librarian
3. Design alternative ways to help people search items on https://www.aveda.ca/	You are visiting to find a specific product. Click the region you would use to search for your item of interest
4. Design alternative methods for people to donate to the Apache Software Foundation from their homepage http://www.apache.org/	You have been using OpenOffice and would like to help the Apache Software Foundation. Click where you think you should to donate money.
5. Design alternative methods to upload a file (e.g. a video) into the internet archive database https://archive.org/. (Hint – it's the "Upload" button on the top right, not the "Video" button)	Imagine you want to upload a video of cute kittens into the Internet Archive. Click the appropriate location to start the process.
6. Design alternative methods to show today's mall hours on the home page of https://www.pickeringtowncentre.com/	You want to go shopping this evening but you want to know if the mall will be open. Click the place to read today's hours.